

Volunteers

South Orange Performing Arts Center

South Orange, NJ

SOPAC (South Orange Performing Arts Center) is a multidisciplinary arts center that presents innovative artistic and educational cultural experiences through music, theater, dance, comedy, and family performances and arts education programs.

SOPAC is a perfect place to volunteer and help out within the community. Volunteers can serve as ushers at events and/or help out in one of our administrative or production departments including:

- House Management and Patron Services
- Marketing and Communications
- Live Production and Stagecraft
- Education and Volunteer Coordinating
- Arts Administration
- Event Planning
- Development and Fundraising

Flexible hours: SOPAC Office hours are 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday. During the season, there are weekly evening and weekend events. SOPAC offers opportunities for individuals with open availability or challenging schedules.

Free tickets to SOPAC Events: Volunteers earn 2 tickets to a SOPAC-sponsored event of their choice after every three shows or days volunteered at SOPAC. Tickets can be given to friends and family as the perfect gift. (Based on volunteer hours accrued and ticket availability. Special-event shows do not apply.)

Inner access to SOPAC shows and events: Learn about the world of and professions serving live music, comedy, theater, dance and family events that SOPAC offers from the inside. During the season, volunteers have the chance to work a wide array of SOPAC shows, concerts, readings, seminars, master classes, and special events behind the scenes and with the community.

Earn community service hours: Apply volunteer hours to your school or work program.

For more information, contact Jennifer Isaacs, SOPAC Volunteer Coordinator, at jenny@sopacnow.org or call 973.275.1114 ext 401 or stop by the Box Office for a volunteer application.