

Jonathan Felsman Internship (Summer 2010)
South Orange Performing Arts Center
South Orange, NJ

The South Orange Performing Arts Center (SOPAC) is offering a paid internship for a candidate with career interest and passion for the performing arts. Intern may specialize in one of the following SOPAC departments: Marketing and Communications, Arts Administration, or Events Planning; they will assist in summer projects, as well as develop new programming. The internship runs from June 1st through August 15 with a weekly stipend for 30 hours per week. The intern should be currently majoring in theater arts, arts management, marketing/communications or related field. To satisfy learning objectives, the intern must write (and submit to their advisor) a final reflection about how their experience at SOPAC relates to their college/university studies. Students will gain arts administration, practice at planning and executing performances/events under a mentor's supervision, and an exploration of the applications of multi-media, technology, and computer programs in the daily operations of a professional performing arts center.

Qualifications:

Current college student majoring in music, theater, fine art, arts administration, marketing, communications or related field

Experience with Microsoft Office applications (Excel, Word, Outlook)

Experience with Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign a plus

Reliable and self-motivated
