

SOPAC Season 18

Impact Report

Presented 85 SHOWS
this Season

Reached more than 23,000

people across Instagram, Facebook,
TikTok, and LinkedIn

Join the count
and follow us!
@SOPACnow

Connected Teaching 15 Artists with nearly 200

Students in the Arts Residency Programs

Audience members came from 20

of NJ's 21
COUNTIES

Displayed more than 250

pieces in the Herb + Milly
Iris Gallery

Engaged more than 6,300

students through the School Performance Series

Volunteers dedicated

2,100 hours
to SOPAC

45
ARTISTS made their SOPAC
Debuts

Provided over

5,700

students with subsidized tickets to live arts experiences in the School

Performance Series

Presented the 2ND

PAUL BARTICK
EMERGING ARTIST AWARD

to

SIMONE MCCREAR

More than 30,000

People

walked through SOPAC's doors!

12

More than 1

145
hours

of instruction across
SOPAC's

3 Arts Residency
Programs

Jazz, Strings & Dance

“ Being asked to perform at SOPAC was an absolute honor! SOPAC has a rich legacy of being a home to world famous performers as well as local New Jersey talent. Walking through the halls, being backstage ready to go on, it all feels like you are a small part of that important legacy. ”

JULIE GALORENZO, Performer in Cabaret in the Loft

